

An Exhibition in Art:

Seeing the New Testament

for what it is:

...

This Exhibition is on a two-year, nationwide tour. It launched in Leicester in February 2015. Since then it has visited various locations in South Derbyshire, as well as Oxford, Cambridge, the Cliff College Festival and, just recently, Edinburgh. The tour will conclude in Hull, City of Culture 2017. (Hull is the exhibitor's 'home' town.)

You would think, wouldn't you, that we would know all that there is to know about the New Testament Books? For nearly two thousand years they have been the focus of the keenest analytical minds. But the truth is there is more, much more! This Exhibition will enable you to see the New Testament texts for what they are. You will see how very carefully, and purposely, these books were crafted. They are the works of specialists in ancient rhetoric.

'This exhibition introduces the fruits of much scholarly research which will inform and intrigue those who know a lot about these books and those who know very little,' says Rev Dr David G. Palmer, the Exhibitor, Methodist Minister, Member of the British New Testament Society and Member of the Royal Institute of British Architects.

The Exhibition now visits Wales for the first time

At the City United Reformed Church

Windsor Place, Cardiff, CF10 3BZ

Thursday to Saturday, 29th – 31st October 2015

Thursday 2.00pm - 7.00pm

Friday 10.00am - 9.00pm

Saturday 10.00am - 7.00pm

Friday at 7.30pm and Sunday Lunchtime (1st November, after morning worship):

Talks (disclosing new discoveries)

'The New Testament, but not as you know it!'

For sale at the exhibition (as at the Christian Resources Exhibition in Manchester, Oct. 2014 and the NEC, Birmingham, 7th & 8th Oct. 2015) for educational and evangelistic purposes:

books, reading schemes, artworks, posters, jigsaws, mugs, greetings cards, placemats and mouse-mats.

For more on the research, visit: www.davidgpalmer.co.uk

For further information, contact: Rev Dr David G Palmer,
46 Regent Street, Church Gresley, Swadlincote, DE11 9PL
Tel: 01283 211671; Mob: 0773 179 1846

